

Sheridan Maguire

Background

Sheridan is a highly effective business performance coach, with a particular interest in organisational leadership development. He has worked extensively across sectors including central and local government, the arts, banking and financial services, the police, the power industry, the NHS and local and national charities as well as working with disaffected young people.

He has designed and run group workshops, coach training programmes, senior strategy meetings, facilitated training days and action learning sets and has coached directors and CEO's on a 1:1 basis for over ten years.

Sheridan has written articles on coaching in journals including Managing Best Practice and the Journal of Change Management, and his new book Core Coaching is published later this year.

Qualifications and Credentials

- EMCC Practitioner Level
- Qualified CSTD coaching supervisor
- MBTI accredited practitioner
- Fellow of the Institute of Leadership and Management

Recent clients

Sheridan's recent experience involves both ILM coach training programmes for Keele University, National Grid, National Grid Property, Proctor & Gamble, the NHS, the TDA and ARK International and Executive 1:1 coaching for EdF Energy, Hanover Foundation, DSC, Kalyx, NHS Foundation Trusts and Transport for London